From Pastor John

Our series during Lent is "Lead Us to the Cross" and one of the early verses that we used was taken from I Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God."

Last time that we were in Israel we went to the place where Jesus was crucified. It tells us that it was called Golgotha, (the place of the skull) when standing along the road you can see on the rocks a figure of a skull. There really is no mistaking it. It is also within walking distance of what is believed to be the tomb of Jesus. It is all very clear, it is all very easy to see. Standing there looking at the place where Jesus died is very moving.

People had asked me the last time that I was there what my favorite places was to visit while in Israel. For me it was the boat ride on the sea of Galilee, and the other was the "Garden Tomb" where Jesus was buried.

As we journey together in this season of Lent I am reminded of these sites that we visited while in Israel, but it will mean more to me this trip because of the series of messages that we have been preaching about. You do not have to go to Israel to appreciate this series, because we have the Bible that teaches us so much about the Cross.

As we are being led to the cross in this season of Lent, may God reveal to us the great work that was done on the cross by our savior Jesus the Christ?

I am reminded of the song in our hymnal 297 "Beneath the Cross of Jesus," the second verse.

"Upon that cross of Jesus mine eye at times can see the very dying form of One who suffered there for me; and from my stricken heart with tears two wonders I confess: the wonders of redeeming love and my unworthiness."

My prayer is: Jesus lead me to the cross, for where my sins were bore, I stand beneath the cross, for now and evermore. Amen

Have a great Lent and I will see you on Easter Day!

From the Assistant Pastor...

Life With God is Better Than Life Without God...

I sometimes wear a little brass pin that says, "TRY GOD." Isn't it crazy how we are willing to try everything else under the sun—except God? We try new foods, new jobs, new hairstyles or clothing, and so on and so forth. Yet, God who is the very source of life and all that is good and right can be blamed for the evil and suffering on this planet.

Therefore, we consciously decide we dare not "TRY GOD!"

For myself, I have come to know of God's love, God's hope, and God's peace that is found in a personal relationship with Jesus. I have never found anything else on this earth that has satisfied the void in my heart like Jesus has done. I am a successful businesswoman, proud mother of three remarkable young adult children and two truly amazing grandsons, happy homeowner, and have achieved much in my life. But the greatest of all things in my life is my connection to God through faith in Jesus.

Come, join us at HOPE Community Church (and Atonement United Methodist Church) and "TRY GOD." God made us and loves us more than we will ever realize on this side of heaven. I believe you will come to know that life with God is better than life without God! Together we will find greater purpose for our lives and learn about Jesus as Friend and Savior.

P. S. The above note was enclosed in HOPE's 2016 door hangers. HOPE Continues to get the word out that God loves us. And the message of Easter is the heart and soul of what we believe: Christ has died, Christ has risen and Christ is coming again! By God's grace, we have tried God and found faith in His One and Only Son, Jesus. WE are Resurrection people! Now the task for US is to "Try Sharing" God's love, hope, peace, and all the other countless blessings we have. May your Easter joy be contagious! May we find even greater purpose for our lives and LIVE for Jesus! Happy Resurrection Day to All!!!! Pastor Amy

To My Atonement Family,

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU for all your prayers, cards, emails and for just being there for myself and Linda after my failed attempt to fly while riding my bicycle on Naamans Road on Sunday afternoon the 28th of February. Your out pouring of prayers, blessing and well wishes were definitely felt and continue to feed my recovery. Atonement is surely a blessing in our life!

May God continue to bless us all!

With Love, Randy Keim

RACE AND RELIGION— BOB MCCLURE

Black History Month

In February, we pause, remember, and honor Black Americans for their accomplishments and contributions to the historic timeline of American history. Once a week long celebration created by historian Carter G. Woodson in 1926 and called “Negro History Week”, it was officially recognized and expanded to a month long observance in 1976 to the present day. This change allowed “Black History month” and it’s events to emphasized the teaching of black history while being reflective through stimulated discussions, educational programs and community involvement in public schools, universities and museums.

“We should emphasize not Negro History, but the Negro in history. What we need is not a history of selected races or nations, but the history of the world void of national bias, race hate, and religious prejudice.” -Dr. Carter G. Woodson

With the month chosen to coincide with the birthdays of President Abraham Lincoln and abolitionist Frederick Douglas, paying tribute to black achievements increased the awareness of the courage and perseverance of black citizens contributions to life and culture in the U.S. The collective accounts of the struggles and societal changes throughout the decades, gave all citizens an opportunity to learn national and world history.

“ Seize the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our history.”- President Gerald Ford

As believers in Christ, we all have been placed on this earth, regardless of race or culture, to reflect God’s image and love. Our differences give us the opportunity to see God’s plan at work as we embrace and live the Christian faith. The spiritual heritage that we share binds us together. God’s infinite love gives us hope for a better future as we collectively respect the histories, backgrounds, and accomplishments of all people as one in Him.

“Our nation is a rainbow - red, yellow, brown, black, and white - and we’re all precious in God’s sight”. -Rev. Jesse Jackson

In closing, celebrate Black History month by remembering the struggles and determination of earlier generations. Expose yourself to the wealth of information and knowledge in learning about Black Americans’ contributions to U.S. history. Hear the old stories of our cultural heritage through the years and pass them on to the next generation. Inform and engage our youth and community in creating an awareness and understanding of our past and our people. After all, Black history is American history.

“We are not the makers of history, we are made by history” - Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

HOPE Community Church Presents
Prayer and Healing Service

Sunday, April 3 , 6:30pm.

Meeting in the Atonement Church Sanctuary.

Pastor Amy Peters

James 5:16

Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.

Guests are most welcome.

Prayer and Healing Service Testimonies....

From the two services held so far this year....One testimony given for healing in a hip that was causing much pain. This person testified that she sat in her pew during the praying time and did not go up front for prayer. She had heard it said that God can heal you in the pew so she believed and was healed! Thank YOU, amazing GOD!!! She actually gave this testimony two months later and pain in hip had never returned.

Also, prayer for someone “who was not present” to experience peace in their life in the midst of great turmoil, chaos, and confusion. That individual has had much greater calm and sound mind even though circumstances have not changed.

Another is a person who has had knee pain for months. The knee was prayed over and was healed, with a testimony that “it hasn’t felt this good since last November.” Now, weeks later, this individual is still pain free and the doctor is happy to hear how it got better!

God is incredibly faithful to God’s family here on earth. If you need prayer or know of someone, please come join us on April 3rd for another time of worship, praise, prayer and healing in the Name of Jesus! Amen.

Upcoming Prayer and Healing Services are the First Sunday of the Month April 3rd , May 1st and June 5th at 6:30pm in the Atonement Sanctuary.

What People Are Saying...

“Grace runs rampant at Hope Community Church. I have witnessed the epidemic and it is contagious! Our family at Hope is a diverse one—rich, poor, fat, thin, short, tall and skin of many colors gathered together to worship and praise through music and prayer. For me personally, grace has more than one meaning, all which apply. Grace is defined as the free, unmerited favor of God, elegance, poise and finesse, and finally to distinguish and honor with one’s presence. Hope exhibits all of these qualities and inspires me to do the same. I don’t just go to church, as Pastor Amy says, “We are the church!” The grace of God fills me with hope, to watch my loved ones walk through difficult times, to triumph with nothing more than a “thank you God”...I have learned so much from these wonderful people of God who pay it forward, give all they can willingly, and it is done with grace, never expecting anything in return. We do it for Him!”—Patti Sexton
